The bustling market town of Diss is less than a mile away, providing a wide range of shops, supermarkets, cafés, and a mainline railway station with direct links to Norwich and London Liverpool Street. With beautiful countryside walks on your doorstep and excellent transport connections, this is a location that offers both relaxation and practicality in equal measure.

Blands Farm Close

Upon entry through the solid wood door, the property welcomes you into an inviting entrance porch with ample space for coats and shoes. The living room, boasting exposed beams and an inglenook fireplace with a cast iron stove, sets a warm and cosy ambience.

The double aspect kitchen features vaulted ceilings, solid oak work surfaces, and integrated appliances, with a stable door leading out to the rear gardens. Additionally, the kitchen opens up into a versatile dining room which provides access to the rear garden.

Completing the ground floor layout, a well-appointed bathroom and a generously-sized double bedroom with dual aspect windows provide comfort and convenience. Ascending to the first floor, the master bedroom boasts a dressing room and en-suite for added luxury.

Outside, the property offers off-road parking for 2-3 cars on the paved driveway. The south westerly facing rear garden is a tranquil oasis, receiving sunlight throughout the day. Landscaped with care, the gardens are a delight of colour and charm, with a timber summer house creating a perfect spot for outdoor dining.

Moreover, this residence benefits from modern comforts such as a gas-fired central heating system, double glazed wood casement windows, and ample storage space with built-in cupboards. The prime location ensures easy access to local amenities, making daily errands a breeze.
