Bradwell is a village located in the county of Norfolk, situated approximately 4 miles south of the town of Great Yarmouth. It is part of the Broadland district and lies within close proximity to the Norfolk Broads, a network of rivers and lakes popular for boating and outdoor activities.

The village itself is residential, with a mix of rural and suburban characteristics, and has a long history with notable landmarks, such as the Bradwell Windmill. Its location offers easy access to the coast, with the North Sea just a short distance to the east, making it a picturesque and quiet area that combines both countryside charm and coastal appeal.

Constable Drive, Bradwell

This well-presented, modern mid-terrace home offers a comfortable and convenient lifestyle. Upon entering, you'll find a welcoming entrance hall leading to a particularly light and airy extended lounge and dining area. The extension features a vaulted ceiling with a Velux window and double-glazed French doors that open directly onto the rear garden, creating a wonderful sense of space and connection to the outdoors.

The property boasts a well-designed U-shaped kitchen with ample base and wall units, worktops, and integrated appliances including an electric hob and oven. There's also plumbing for a washing machine.

Upstairs, the landing provides access to two bedrooms. The main bedroom is a good-sized double room with a double-glazed window overlooking the rear garden. The second bedroom offers a comfortable single space with a double-glazed window to the front.

Completing the first floor is a shower room with part-tiled walls, a shower enclosure, a hand basin and a low-level WC. A storage cupboard in the shower room houses the wall-mounted gas boiler.
