The Location

Located on Low Street in the well-connected village of Oakley, 35a delivers a countryside setting without sacrificing everyday convenience. The village offers a calm, residential feel with local amenities nearby and easy access to larger towns like Eye and Diss—ideal for shopping, schools, and direct train routes to London. With the A140 just a short drive away, road links to Norwich, Ipswich, and beyond are effortlessly within reach, making commuting a breeze.

The area lends itself to a practical yet scenic lifestyle. Surrounded by open fields and walking routes, there's always space to get outside and enjoy the fresh air. Weekends can be spent exploring nearby market towns, relaxing in the garden, or making the most of the Suffolk landscape. Oakley offers balance—rural charm, daily ease, and a strong sense of community.

Low Street, Oakley

Approaching the property, a charming gravelled driveway offers space for your vehicles and sets a timeless tone as you head towards the classic cottage-style front door. Step inside and you're instantly welcomed into a characterful sitting room, rich with original features.

Exposed log beams overhead frame the space beautifully, while a striking brick wall plays host to a cosy log burner, delivering both warmth and atmosphere. Clever use of a brick-built nook allows the current owners to neatly tuck away coats and boots, showcasing just how effortlessly this home adapts to everyday life while keeping things stylish.

From the sitting room, a traditional latch door guides you into the kind of bathroom you never knew you needed—until now. Deep green tiling sets a moody, luxurious backdrop, complemented by brushed gold fixtures that elevate even the
