Location

Caister-on-Sea is a coastal village located in the county of Norfolk, situated on the North Sea coast. It lies approximately 3 miles north of Great Yarmouth, making it part of the Greater Yarmouth area. Caister-on-Sea is also historically significant, with its origins dating back to Roman times, as evidenced by the nearby Caister Roman fort. The area is well-served by local amenities, including shops, cafes, and schools such as Caister Academy, with regular bus links to surrounding areas. The village is well-connected by road and is close to the A149, making it easily accessible.

Upon entering, you're welcomed by a spacious and inviting entrance hall, enhanced by a conveniently located WC. The heart of the home is the contemporary open-plan kitchen and dining area, thoughtfully designed with sleek modern cabinetry, high-quality integrated appliances, and ample workspace. Adjacent to the kitchen, a practical utility room adds to the home's functionality, providing additional storage and laundry space.

The spacious sitting room is bathed in natural light, featuring French doors that open out onto the garden, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor flow ideal for both relaxing and entertaining.

The accommodation includes three well-proportioned double bedrooms, all finished to a high standard, and a stylish, contemporary family bathroom suite, complete with quality fittings and a clean, modern aesthetic.

Outside, the property truly excels. A substantial wrap-around garden offers excellent scope for outdoor enjoyment or further development (subject to planning). It's the perfect space for gardening enthusiasts, family gatherings, or simply soaking up the coastal air. A large timber storage shed provides excellent storage, while a private driveway offers ample off-road parking. The additional benefit of a garage provides further storage or potential for a workshop.
