The Location

Located in the heart of Dereham, South Green Gardens enjoys a prime position in one of Norfolk's most family-friendly and well-connected market towns. Everything you need is close by — from supermarkets, independent shops and highly regarded schools to cafes, restaurants and leisure facilities, all within easy walking distance.

Dereham strikes a charming balance between old and new, with free parking making it simple to explore the town centre, enjoy a relaxed lunch, or browse the local high street. For families, there's plenty to do — a modern leisure centre, local museums, and open green spaces like Neatherd Moor and Vicarage Meadow offer room to roam, play or simply unwind.

Nature lovers and weekend adventurers will enjoy being near attractions such as Pensthorpe Nature Reserve, the Saxon Cathedral ruins at North Elmham and Thetford Forest Park, while golfers will appreciate the nearby course.

Excellent transport links make commuting easy, with regular bus services into Norwich — just a short drive away via the A47 — and onward connections by rail and air, including a direct line to London Liverpool Street and international flights from Norwich Airport. Whether you're raising a family, commuting for work, or enjoying a slower pace of life, this location delivers a mix of countryside charm and urban convenience.
