

Flat 1, 137 Newmarket Road, Norwich

£1,600 pcm

Enjoying a prime position along one of Norwich's most desirable roads, this beautifully renovated ground floor apartment offers an exceptional standard of living with timeless Victorian elegance and contemporary upgrades throughout. Set within a distinguished detached period residence, the property provides its own private entrance, generous living space, and access to a garden, creating a rare blend of privacy and style in a central location. With secure parking, modern security features, and thoughtful interior design, this two-bedroom home presents an outstanding opportunity for those seeking refined accommodation within easy reach of the city centre and UEA. Available now.

Council Tax band: B