15 Cordwainer Close

Sprowston, Norwich

Location

Cordwainer Close is a quiet residential street located in the Norfolk town of Sprowston, just northeast of Norwich city centre. The area combines a suburban, family-friendly atmosphere with easy access to local amenities. Residents can find a selection of convenience stores, cafés, and takeaway outlets within walking distance, while larger supermarkets and retail options are available a short drive away. Families benefit from nearby schools, including Sprowston Community Academy for secondary education and several primary schools catering to younger children.

Healthcare needs are well-served with local GP surgeries and pharmacies in the town, and the Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital is only a short drive away for more extensive medical services. Transport links are strong, with frequent bus services connecting Sprowston to Norwich city centre and surrounding areas, and easy access to the A47 for travel by car. The combination of local amenities, schools, healthcare, and connectivity makes Cordwainer Close an attractive location for residents seeking a balanced suburban lifestyle.
