15 Lower Street

Horning, Norwich

Entering through its own private front door, a staircase rises to the first floor where the accommodation unfolds. The hallway provides useful storage and leads into a generous L-shaped lounge and dining area, an inviting space with carpet underfoot and plenty of natural light streaming through multiple windows. Sliding doors open onto a private balcony, which gets lots of sun and creates the perfect spot to sit and enjoy views across the river.

Open plan to this area, the recently refitted kitchen combines practicality with style, offering sleek white cabinetry, dark contrasting work surfaces, and classic subway tiling with defined grout lines. A stainless steel sink is set beneath a wide window, while integrated appliances, including a built-in oven with gas hob and extractor, make the most of the space. Wood-effect flooring ties the look together with a smart, durable finish.

The property provides two well-proportioned double bedrooms, each bright and comfortable. The principal bedroom benefits from a modern en-suite, fitted with a panelled bath and overhead shower, pedestal basin, WC, and crisp tiling for a contemporary finish.

The second bedroom includes built-in storage and is served by a further refitted family shower room, styled with half-height subway tiling, a panelled bath with a shower over, a pedestal basin, and a WC. Both bathrooms feature frosted windows that allow light while preserving privacy, complemented by practical wood-effect flooring.

Outside, the property enjoys off-road parking via a garage beneath, forming part of a well-maintained purpose-built development in the centre of Horning. Positioned within this picturesque Broadland village, residents benefit from the lively boating community, local pubs, cafés, and direct access to the River Bure.
