Bradwell, Great Yarmouth

Location

Falkland Way is a quiet residential street in the popular village of Bradwell, on the outskirts of Great Yarmouth. Day-to-day essentials are well covered locally. Beccles Road, a few minutes' walk away, has a Tesco Express, takeaway options, a pharmacy, and a post office. The larger shopping areas of Gorleston and Great Yarmouth are only a short drive, offering supermarkets, cafés, and high-street retailers. Residents also have a small cluster of local stores in Bradwell village centre, ideal for quick errands.

The area is well served for education, with several well-regarded schools nearby. Woodlands Primary Academy and Homefield Primary are both within the village, while Ormiston Venture Academy and Cliff Park Ormiston Academy are the main secondary options in nearby Gorleston. Early years provision and after-school clubs are available locally, making it a convenient area for families.

Bradwell is well positioned for travel around the borough. Regular bus services run along Beccles Road and Church Lane towards Great Yarmouth, Gorleston, and Lowestoft. The A143 provides direct road access to Norwich and other Norfolk towns, while Great Yarmouth railway station is about fifteen minutes away by car for trains to Norwich and beyond.

Outside, the private rear garden is designed for easy maintenance and year-round enjoyment. A raised decked terrace provides a delightful setting for outdoor dining, while the artificial lawn and established planting create an appealing backdrop. The versatile summerhouse adds an additional dimension, perfect as a studio, office or an outdoor snug.

Further benefits include a paved driveway with off-road parking, a garage for additional storage, an EV car charger, full fibre broadband and a recently installed (two-year-old) boiler, enhancing both comfort and efficiency.

This exceptional property offers the ideal balance of village life and contemporary living, making it a truly special place to call home.
