Location

Middleton Road is situated in a quiet residential area of Gorleston-on-Sea, just a short walk from the town centre and the coastline. Local amenities are within easy reach, including small supermarkets, cafés, a bakery, a pharmacy, and a mix of independent shops that give the area a strong community feel. Families have convenient access to education, with Lynn Grove Academy and Cliff Park Ormiston Academy nearby for secondary schooling, while several primary schools serve younger children within a few minutes' drive.

Transport links are practical: regular bus services connect the area to Great Yarmouth, Norwich, and surrounding villages, and road connections make commuting straightforward. For leisure, the sandy beach and promenade are just a short stroll away, perfect for weekend walks, cycling, or enjoying the cliff-top gardens. Living on Middleton Road offers a balanced lifestyle, combining the calm of a residential neighbourhood with easy access to shops, schools, transport, and the relaxed rhythm of coastal life.

Step inside to a welcoming reception hall, where under-stairs storage and a fitted carpet create a practical yet inviting entrance. The bay-fronted sitting room is a bright and airy space, filled with natural light, featuring elegant wall lights, a wood-effect floor, and a seamless flow into the dining room. Here, space and style meet, providing the perfect setting for family meals or relaxed evenings with friends. Leading from the dining room, the garden/playroom opens through patio doors to the rear garden, extending the living space outdoors and offering an ideal area for children to play or for an informal home office.

The extended kitchen is a standout feature of the home, thoughtfully designed with a Butler-style sink, solid oak work surfaces, integrated dishwasher, and space for modern appliances. Dual windows and a rear door invite natural light while offering direct access to the garden, making it a sociable and functional heart of the home.
