183 Long Road

Lowestoft

Location

Long Road is a residential street in south Lowestoft, Suffolk, positioned conveniently for both the town centre and the coast. The street is mainly composed of semi-detached and terraced homes, offering a quiet, practical setting for families and professionals.

Education is a highlight of the area. East Point Academy, serving secondary-age pupils, is within easy reach, followed closely by Pakefield Primary School and Pakefield High School, making the location particularly convenient for families with children of all ages. Nearby parks and green spaces provide opportunities for outdoor recreation and leisure.

Local amenities are within walking distance, including convenience stores, cafés, and takeaway options, while larger supermarkets and retail centres in Pakefield are just a short drive away.

Transport links are practical: bus routes connect Long Road to Lowestoft town centre, the seafront, and surrounding neighbourhoods, while Lowestoft railway station is a short bus or car journey away, offering services to Norwich and beyond. Road access is also straightforward via the A12 and A47, linking into the wider Suffolk and Norfolk network.
