Weybread, Diss

The Location

Tucked away on the peaceful Suffolk/Norfolk border, the village of Weybread is everything you might hope for in a classic English countryside setting. It's a place where life moves at a gentler pace – where quiet lanes wind past fields and meadows, and neighbours still stop for a friendly chat. The village is surrounded by open countryside, making it perfect for those who love the outdoors, whether it's a Sunday walk along the River Waveney or a scenic bike ride through the lanes.

While the setting feels wonderfully rural and secluded, you're never far from the essentials. The vibrant market town of Harleston is just a short drive away and offers a great selection of independent shops, cafés, pubs, and schools. A little further afield, Diss offers an even broader range of amenities, including a mainline rail station with direct trains to London, reaching the capital in around 1.5 hours, ideal for those looking to stay connected to city life while enjoying a village setting.

Weybread is a place in which you'll quickly feel at home. It offers the space, scenery and slower pace that so many people crave, without ever feeling isolated. Whether you're looking to raise a family, start a new chapter in the countryside, or simply escape the hustle and bustle, Weybread is a place you'll quickly feel at home.
