Martham also provides access to the Norfolk Broads, with Martham Broad and its surrounding marshland offering opportunities for wildlife watching and countryside walks. The beaches at Hemsby and Winterton on Sea are within reach for coastal outings, while Great Yarmouth offers additional retail, leisure and entertainment facilities. Road connections link the village with the wider Norfolk area, although rail journeys generally require travel to a nearby station. With its established amenities, local schooling and access to both Broadland landscapes and the coast, Martham offers a practical setting for those looking to combine village living with outdoor recreation.

Upon entering, the welcoming reception hall provides access to the principal accommodation, with useful built in storage and loft access. The spacious lounge/dining room is a particular highlight, offering ample room for both relaxing and entertaining. Triple aspect windows allow natural light to fill the space, while sliding patio doors open onto the rear garden, creating a pleasant connection between the indoor and outdoor areas. A feature fireplace provides an attractive focal point, adding character to this generously proportioned reception room.

The kitchen/breakfast room offers a practical layout, fitted with a range of wall and base units, generous worktop space and an integrated oven and ceramic hob with extractor hood above. There is additional room for a breakfast table, making it well suited to everyday dining, while a door provides convenient outdoor access.

There are three well-proportioned bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from its own en-suite shower room. The second bedroom is particularly spacious, offering flexibility for a variety of furniture arrangements, or the potential to create additional accommodation, subject to the necessary considerations. The third bedroom provides further comfortable sleeping space and benefits from fitted storage. A family bathroom completes the internal accommodation, fitted with a bath, wash basin and WC.

Outside, the property occupies a secluded plot with established gardens, providing a pleasant degree of privacy. The front garden features a lawn with paved pathways and established planting, while the enclosed rear garden offers a peaceful setting with mature shrubs, a lawn and a raised decking area. A summerhouse with electricity provides useful additional space to enjoy the garden. The detached double garage, together with the ample driveway parking, further enhances the property's appeal.
