Great Yarmouth

The Location

Great Yarmouth is a well-established coastal town offering a broad mix of everyday convenience, leisure, and transport connections. The town provides a wide range of amenities, including supermarkets, high-street and independent shops, cafés, pubs, restaurants, and a shopping centre, ensuring daily needs are easily met.

Leisure facilities are plentiful, with access to the seafront, sandy beaches, leisure centres, a cinema, swimming pool, and nearby attractions linked to the Norfolk Broads. The area also offers a choice of primary and secondary schools, along with healthcare services and other essential facilities. Great Yarmouth benefits from its own railway station with direct links to Norwich, while road connections have been improved over recent years, making travel to surrounding towns and cities more accessible.

Its coastal setting, combined with strong local infrastructure, makes Great Yarmouth a popular and practical place to live.

North Quay, Great Yarmouth

The property opens into a welcoming lounge/diner, providing space for both seating and dining furniture. The open layout creates a versatile living area, with natural light and neutral décor contributing to a bright, comfortable feel. To the rear, the fitted kitchen features a range of wall and base units, practical work surfaces and space for appliances, with a door leading out to the courtyard garden.
