Corton, Lowestoft

Location

Corton is a coastal village on the Suffolk border, offering a quieter residential setting with easy access to the seaside and surrounding countryside. The village has a selection of local amenities, including shops and places to eat, while nearby Lowestoft provides a wider choice of supermarkets, independent retailers, cafés, restaurants, healthcare services, and leisure facilities. Families have access to local schooling in the surrounding area, with further educational options available in Lowestoft and Great Yarmouth.

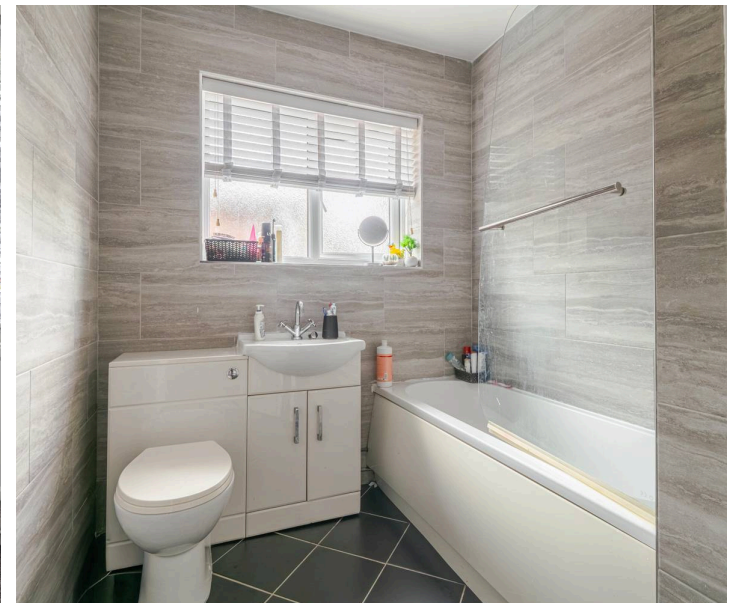

Corton's coastal position provides access to sandy beaches, cliff top paths and open green spaces, with nearby Corton Woods and Gunton Warren offering opportunities for walking and enjoying the local wildlife. Regular bus services connect Corton with Lowestoft and Great Yarmouth, and Lowestoft railway station provides onward connections towards Norwich and Ipswich. The combination of village amenities, access to the Suffolk coastline and convenient links to nearby towns makes this location a considered choice for those looking for a quieter coastal lifestyle without losing touch with everyday essentials.

There are two bedrooms, both offering useful accommodation for a variety of needs. The principal bedroom provides ample space for bedroom furniture, while the second bedroom could comfortably serve as a guest room, home office, or hobby space. Completing the interior, the bathroom is fitted with a bath, wash basin, and WC, with tiled finishes and a practical layout.

Outside, the enclosed rear garden is a particularly appealing feature, offering a good-sized lawn, established planting, and a high degree of privacy. A paved seating area provides an ideal spot for outdoor dining or enjoying the garden during warmer months, while the surrounding greenery creates a pleasant sense of seclusion. The front garden is also attractively presented, contributing to the property's overall appeal.

Further benefits include a private driveway and detached garage, providing off-road parking alongside useful additional storage. With its manageable single-storey layout, well-presented accommodation, and private outdoor space, this bungalow offers an appealing opportunity for buyers seeking a comfortable home close to the coast, whether as a permanent residence, a downsizing option, or a base for enjoying the surrounding beaches and countryside.
