Southrepps, Norwich

The Location

Southrepps is a popular North Norfolk village, offering a range of everyday amenities alongside a pleasant rural setting. Local facilities include a village shop, traditional public house, village hall, and parish church, while Antingham and Southrepps Primary School is situated within the village on Lower Street. The surrounding area is particularly appealing for those who enjoy the outdoors, with Southrepps Common providing a nature reserve incorporating woodland, reedbeds, wetland, and grassland, together with a number of walking routes.

The village is conveniently positioned between the coastal town of Cromer and the market town of North Walsham, both offering a wider range of shops, amenities, and leisure facilities. Cromer is approximately five miles away, with its sandy beach, traditional seaside attractions, and independent shops, while North Walsham provides further shopping and everyday amenities. Gunton railway station is also nearby, offering connections along the Bittern Line towards Cromer, Sheringham, and Norwich.

The accommodation begins with an entrance hall, providing access to the two bedrooms and the reception rooms. The living room provides a comfortable setting for relaxation, while the adjoining dining room offers a dedicated area for family meals and social occasions.

The kitchen is separately arranged and offers access to the adjoining utility room, creating a practical arrangement for day-to-day household tasks. A useful pantry provides additional storage. The utility room also provides access towards the car port. Completing the internal accommodation is a family bathroom, fitted with a bath, separate shower enclosure, wash basin, and WC.

Both bedrooms are well-proportioned double rooms, offering comfortable sleeping accommodation and flexibility for a variety of needs, whether required as guest accommodation, a home office, or additional living space.
