Local facilities also include GP surgeries, pharmacies, leisure facilities and Gaymer's Park, with Queen's Square providing a central point for local shopping and community activities. Families are well served by a choice of schools, including Rosecroft Primary School, Attleborough Primary School and Attleborough Academy.

The town is well positioned for commuters, with Attleborough railway station providing connections towards Norwich and Cambridge, while the A11 offers convenient road links to Norwich, Thetford and further afield. There are also regular local bus connections to neighbouring villages and communities. For outdoor recreation, the surrounding Norfolk countryside provides plenty of opportunities for walking and cycling, with Thetford Forest and Banham Zoo among the nearby attractions.
