The Location

Swaffham is a well-established Norfolk market town, offering a convenient setting for families, professionals and those seeking a more relaxed pace of life without losing access to everyday amenities. The historic Market Place forms the heart of the town, with independent shops, cafés, traditional pubs and regular markets, alongside larger supermarkets including Tesco, Waitrose and Asda. Local facilities include Swaffham Community Hospital, a leisure centre and a choice of primary schools, with The Nicholas Hamond Academy providing secondary education.

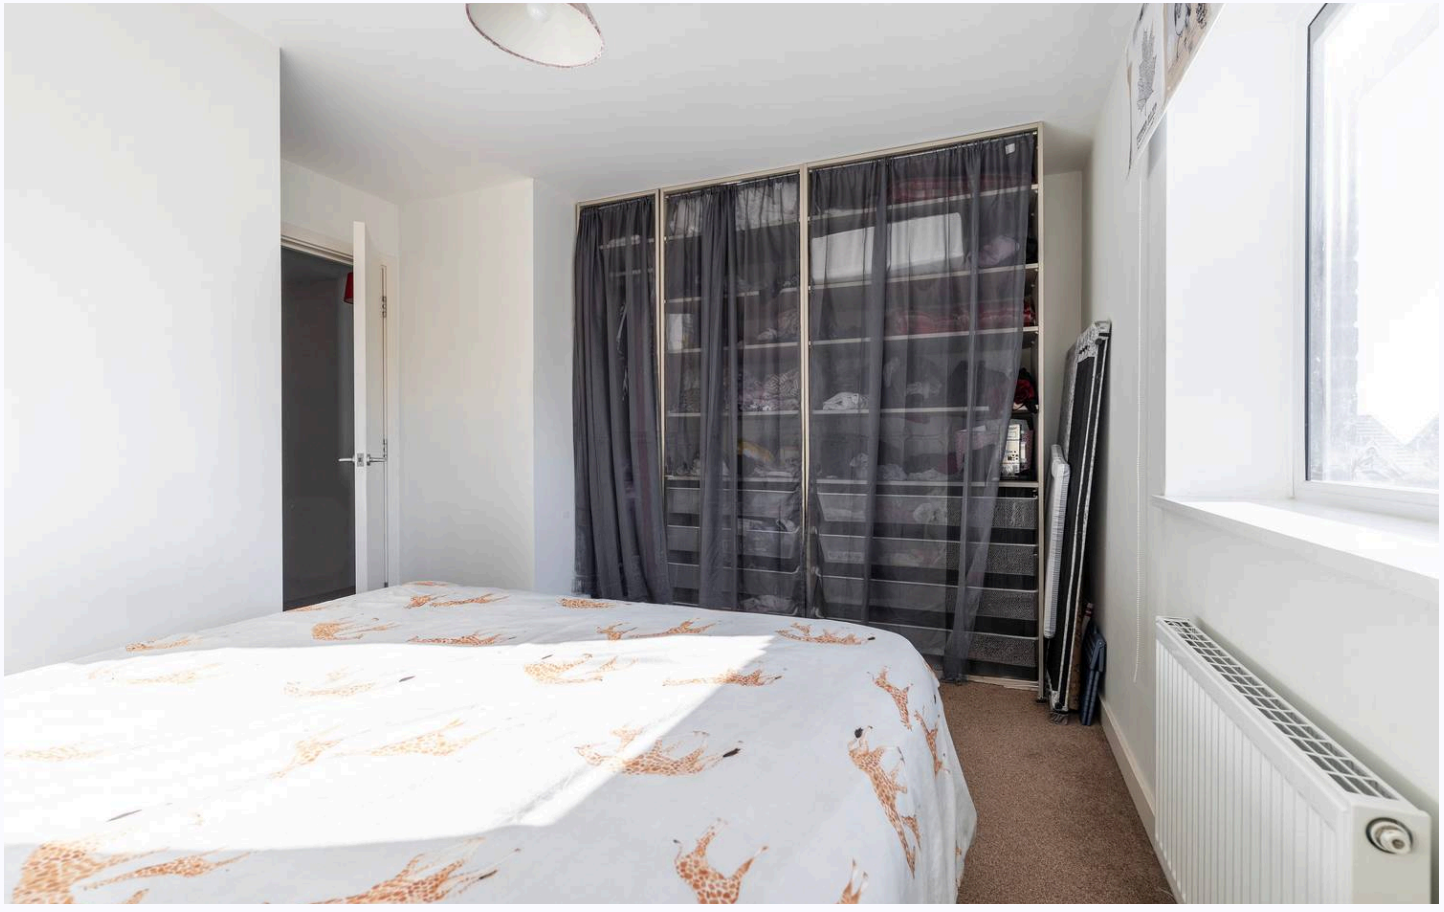

The A47 and A1065 offer road connections towards King's Lynn, Dereham and Norwich, while regular bus services link surrounding towns and villages. Although Swaffham has no railway station, rail services are accessible from King's Lynn and Downham Market.
